

What I most appreciate from NACC is...

	Response Count
	564
answered question	564
skipped question	205

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

1	coordinating conferences & advocacy for the profession	Nov 10, 2012 2:10 PM
2	Prompt communication, News Letters	Nov 9, 2012 7:00 PM
3	I appreciate the wonderful leaders, chaplains and supervisors that I have come to know over the years. Their contributions to NACC and continued commitment in this time of transition is appreciated. NACC education and certification has been very valuable to me as I integrated it into my practice as a supervisor.	Nov 7, 2012 9:53 AM
4	Providing a network and a Catholic perspective on chaplaincy.	Nov 5, 2012 9:31 PM
5	Board Certification, the annual NACC conference	Nov 4, 2012 4:55 PM
6	The networking support I received, esp. when planning for a workshop at the 2012 Conference.	Nov 3, 2012 1:59 PM
7	Not sure.	Nov 2, 2012 2:08 PM
8	Professional Standards, public reputation and excellent 'customer service' and attitude when I have questions.	Nov 2, 2012 12:16 PM
9	The communication and news letters	Nov 2, 2012 7:43 AM
10	Opportunities for networking and bringing information to the fore	Nov 1, 2012 10:38 PM
11	The annual conference.	Nov 1, 2012 8:01 PM
12	certification	Nov 1, 2012 12:13 PM
13	the time, effort, commitment, and dedication of the NACC team in the National Office	Nov 1, 2012 11:50 AM
14	it's professionalism and focus on spiritual care	Nov 1, 2012 11:18 AM
15	You are what makes Chaplains professional	Nov 1, 2012 7:59 AM
16	Knowing that you continue to exist.	Nov 1, 2012 4:05 AM
17	I have seen it grow more professionally thru the years, specially recently. When I was in active chaplaincy it was very much just a "certifying body" and membership in it was needed for one to "practise chaplaincy" in healthcare.	Oct 31, 2012 10:56 PM
18	The support and continuing education opportunities.	Oct 31, 2012 10:15 PM
19	Continuing to promote chaplaincy as a profession and resources available to increase understanding and scope of "spiritual care"; weekly NACC NOW is excellent	Oct 31, 2012 6:29 PM
20	The breadth of their scope	Oct 31, 2012 3:28 PM
21	Providing opportunities for education and growth in pastoral ministry and my own spiritual development.	Oct 31, 2012 9:26 AM
22	The connection to other spiritual care providers.	Oct 30, 2012 10:55 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

23	Helpfulness of National staff.	Oct 30, 2012 7:07 PM
24	the advocacy for professional chaplaincy and being part of a larger network	Oct 30, 2012 6:17 PM
25	I deeply appreciate that the NACC works quite hard to: help educate members; help us network with NACC colleagues across the nation; help us network with other colleagues who share an interest in spirituality and health; help us stay connected with the larger Church through our episcopal liason.	Oct 30, 2012 3:13 PM
26	Not much really.	Oct 30, 2012 2:06 PM
27	Newsletter Cannot always retrieve from website. NACC Conferences	Oct 30, 2012 1:19 PM
28	1) Clearing house for information and resources 2) Organizational advocacy within Catholic Church and with other Pastoral Care organizations	Oct 30, 2012 9:36 AM
29	The details and the richness of the information	Oct 30, 2012 8:59 AM
30	being a very credible clearing house for great or innovative ideals crucial for vibrant ministries.	Oct 30, 2012 8:35 AM
31	Networking and a community of chaplains	Oct 30, 2012 7:38 AM
32	Education resources; advocacy for role of chaplain in the church	Oct 30, 2012 7:04 AM
33	The wonderful resources provided.	Oct 30, 2012 6:38 AM
34	I greatly appreciate the Director's Reflections on Scripture/ Liturgical season, etc. in the beginning of the NOW e-mails. I look forward to them and find them very inspiring and thought provoking.	Oct 29, 2012 9:58 PM
35	helpful literature.	Oct 29, 2012 7:00 PM
36	e-mail news; even just reading about what topics are of interest and current concern; who are speakers and writers as can always "google" them for more info.	Oct 29, 2012 6:57 PM
37	Communication of eletter and NACC VISION	Oct 29, 2012 5:14 PM
38	Vision Newsletter,	Oct 29, 2012 4:18 PM
39	Promotes Board Certified Chaplaincy within the Catholic Church.	Oct 29, 2012 4:12 PM
40	The energy of national staff, the large vareity of resources available for use and follow-up as needed.	Oct 29, 2012 4:10 PM
41	Local conferences	Oct 29, 2012 3:05 PM
42	Having a Catholic chaplaincy organization	Oct 29, 2012 2:19 PM
43	The monthly newsletter	Oct 29, 2012 1:34 PM
44	the opportunity for interraction with other chaplains.	Oct 29, 2012 1:26 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

45	The advocacy for chaplaincy and the availability of opprotunities to make connections with others around resources.	Oct 29, 2012 1:10 PM
46	networking, sharing successful practices	Oct 29, 2012 1:08 PM
47	On going education	Oct 29, 2012 12:47 PM
48	Informative articles, prayers for various settings and actual chaplain experiences	Oct 29, 2012 12:43 PM
49	availability of staff for members' needs	Oct 29, 2012 12:23 PM
50	making education available in so many formats	Oct 29, 2012 12:05 PM
51	...being connected with colleagues doing the same type of ministry.	Oct 29, 2012 12:04 PM
52	providing standards and also coordinating and communication on educational programs/audioconferences	Oct 29, 2012 12:02 PM
53	I am relatively new to the organization but have future plans to become more involved.	Oct 29, 2012 11:15 AM
54	The networking possibilities	Oct 29, 2012 10:35 AM
55	The Annual Conference and the networking and conference calls that I can participate in.	Oct 29, 2012 10:21 AM
56	Its ability to coordinate activities and help members understand the role of their services	Oct 29, 2012 9:33 AM
57	Constant communication	Oct 29, 2012 8:42 AM
58	we work as a team and we do have have materials to help us when we need it.	Oct 29, 2012 8:01 AM
59	The oppotunities provided of which I have taken advantage.	Oct 29, 2012 4:48 AM
60	job psotings and organaization of NACC national cconferences	Oct 28, 2012 9:15 PM
61	help when i need it	Oct 28, 2012 7:08 PM
62	Annual Conference, certification	Oct 28, 2012 6:33 PM
63	Education and inspirational materials.	Oct 28, 2012 5:32 PM
64	Auto Video's and the conferences for CEU's	Oct 28, 2012 5:06 PM
65	Connection for resources, personel, annual conference,	Oct 28, 2012 1:28 PM
66	The value of on-going education and support as a Professional Organization.	Oct 28, 2012 1:10 PM
67	I appreciate the support and care that NACC can give me.	Oct 28, 2012 10:48 AM
68	The on going concern for assisting and forming chaplains.	Oct 28, 2012 8:28 AM
69	- professional organization advocating for me - professional information and	Oct 28, 2012 7:33 AM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

	updates - resource for assistance and help
70	Connecting with other chaplains at events and the shared insights and experiences.	Oct 28, 2012 4:48 AM
71	I have enjoyed the many conferences I've been able to attend.	Oct 27, 2012 9:35 PM
72	Maintaining professional standards, continuing education and networking	Oct 27, 2012 5:56 PM
73	Representing me as wonderfully as they do - where I are not able to do so myself (especially to bishops; other chaplaincy organizations, etc).	Oct 27, 2012 5:45 PM
74	It's certification process and recertification processs	Oct 27, 2012 5:19 PM
75	The ability to present myself as "board certified".	Oct 27, 2012 3:32 PM
76	Communications on line.	Oct 27, 2012 1:31 PM
77	(1) Opportunity for networking and connection to other chaplains (2) grounding/background in best practice and resources	Oct 27, 2012 11:27 AM
78	The networking possibility	Oct 27, 2012 11:24 AM
79	past assistance for professional development	Oct 27, 2012 10:16 AM
80	the ineration of chaplain's dedication to excellent pastoral care.	Oct 27, 2012 9:11 AM
81	Knowing that I am part of such a wonderful organization who at all times is there to be helpful and provide resources for my ministry. Now that I am retired I am not keeping up due to health but still feel blessed to be part of this amazing organization.	Oct 27, 2012 7:30 AM
82	Dedication to the certification process	Oct 27, 2012 7:21 AM
83	The recent individual regional emails	Oct 27, 2012 12:43 AM
84	Advocacy for chaplaincy at every level, assisting in the relationships that make it possible for us to be chaplains.	Oct 26, 2012 9:59 PM
85	willingness to be of support and encouragement	Oct 26, 2012 8:50 PM
86	How well you keep us informed	Oct 26, 2012 6:44 PM
87	How helpful eveyone was from the beginning to the end with certification.	Oct 26, 2012 6:39 PM
88	continual groth and development of ministry and the chaplain in a human and spiritual dimension	Oct 26, 2012 6:38 PM
89	The oppportunity to be in community, connect, share experiences, concerns, stories, resources and professional guidance.	Oct 26, 2012 5:52 PM
90	Keeping informed about my vocation.	Oct 26, 2012 3:53 PM
91	my 34 yrs as a member in the health care setting & energetic healing ministry	Oct 26, 2012 3:47 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

	since 1996.
92	Support. Educational; keeps our ministry professional; Connects with Bishops and larger Church; fights our battles	Oct 26, 2012 3:37 PM
93	I have always enjoyed Vision and am inspired by the stories and informed about the organization	Oct 26, 2012 3:18 PM
94	Resources and communication, conference and educational opportunities	Oct 26, 2012 1:43 PM
95	The quality of materials they provide.	Oct 26, 2012 1:37 PM
96	Resource	Oct 26, 2012 1:34 PM
97	Personal help and the local conferences. Also, the audio conferences are extremely helpful.	Oct 26, 2012 1:22 PM
98	Information on issues and facts related to Catholic Chaplains has contributed to my continued discernment in Hospital Chaplaincy.	Oct 26, 2012 1:15 PM
99	Certification and Conference	Oct 26, 2012 11:54 AM
100	The yearly conferences and NACC is active in promoting Chaplaincy. Thank you.	Oct 26, 2012 11:35 AM
101	Educational events.	Oct 26, 2012 11:19 AM
102	Our yearly gathering and sharing with other chaplains.	Oct 26, 2012 11:05 AM
103	Support for Chaplaincy to the USCCB.	Oct 26, 2012 10:28 AM
104	Being able to receive the newsletters and keep informed of the activities of NACC	Oct 26, 2012 10:14 AM
105	PROFESSIONAL, EQUAL STATUS AMONG ALL FAITH TRADITIONS COMMISSIONS	Oct 26, 2012 9:53 AM
106	Professional standards for ministry; clarification of Catholic values in spiritual care; interfaith dialogue with ACPE, et al.	Oct 26, 2012 9:48 AM
107	networking and learning from one another	Oct 26, 2012 9:43 AM
108	Is reading Vision	Oct 26, 2012 9:29 AM
109	credentialing, community, integrity, laity support	Oct 26, 2012 8:58 AM
110	I have been blessed to have chosen chaplaincy through the NACC. I appreciate your initiatives for the whole membership, your focusing on professionalism, your commitment to the Church, your continuing efforts to keep the Association moving forward by inviting the membership to offer evaluations of your efforts to develop the Association according to the changes and needs in society.	Oct 26, 2012 8:29 AM
111	Support to my work.	Oct 26, 2012 8:01 AM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

112	Offering support and continuing education even though I cannot attend very often	Oct 26, 2012 7:43 AM
113	Advocacy and education	Oct 26, 2012 7:17 AM
114	Our Outstanding Professional Status because of the hard work of those at the top.	Oct 26, 2012 7:08 AM
115	Networking with people who share similar values and ministry commitments	Oct 26, 2012 5:39 AM
116	Local (not more than 1 hr away-@50miles) offerings. I would appreciate information from the state bordering since we are more connected to that state than to other parts of my own state. i.e. Northern KY is closer to Cincinnati OH than to Lexington or Louisville.	Oct 26, 2012 5:34 AM
117	I appreciate the audio conferences very much. They are always informative and have great substance and support my ministry as chaplain. The speakers are always the cream of the crop. David and all the staff in the NACC office provide excellent resources and are always so helpful everytime I call or contact them by email and their responses are prompt. Thank you to all of you for your wonderful care and service.	Oct 26, 2012 4:46 AM
118	Audio conferences that can be used for continuing hours and recertification documents.	Oct 26, 2012 12:23 AM
119	My initial certification board provided such a meaningful and supportive experience for me. My renewal Chaplain also went out of her way to work on a profound and personal level with me and my materials	Oct 25, 2012 11:16 PM
120	Increasing my knowledge of chaplaincy in my ministerial field(s).	Oct 25, 2012 10:10 PM
121	Regional Conference	Oct 25, 2012 10:04 PM
122	An educational day in or near Los Angeles	Oct 25, 2012 9:19 PM
123	Being a part of a national group.	Oct 25, 2012 9:02 PM
124	Professionalism,collaboration, education, research, networking, Catholicism	Oct 25, 2012 9:00 PM
125	Voice commitment I just don't have energy	Oct 25, 2012 7:54 PM
126	the educational resources and the job opportunity listings	Oct 25, 2012 7:53 PM
127	Genuine presence and care exudes from the Director, website, and those members that I have met (especially my certification board). I also appreciate the regular email updates and contacts.	Oct 25, 2012 7:31 PM
128	support from other chaplains; vision and brochures	Oct 25, 2012 7:27 PM
129	Resourcefulness and Preparing candidates for ministry	Oct 25, 2012 7:23 PM
130	that while I am out seeing patients during the day, the leadership and committees are promoting the profession, its legitimacy and dignity. Where I work, I encourage certification among the other chaplains. I like having people with the time investing on a national level on these issues.	Oct 25, 2012 6:58 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

131	Meetings of other chaplains.	Oct 25, 2012 6:57 PM
132	networking maintaining professionalism	Oct 25, 2012 6:55 PM
133	Solidarity.	Oct 25, 2012 6:35 PM
134	Educational opportunities, networking, connection to like organizations.	Oct 25, 2012 6:29 PM
135	Support, gatherings.	Oct 25, 2012 6:04 PM
136	Continuous creative ways and means to help chaplains meet the todays challenges in the ministry.	Oct 25, 2012 6:02 PM
137	Efforts to make the chaplaincy profession valued and respected by the medical world.	Oct 25, 2012 5:59 PM
138	Catholic perspective & dealing with the Bishops	Oct 25, 2012 5:27 PM
139	Educational Opportunities and Resources Community of Membership Being Inspired by resourcefulness of professional chaplains	Oct 25, 2012 5:27 PM
140	Just because I don't take advantage of everything doesn't mean that I don't appreciate their value and am grateful to have them as resources. I used to love "Vision", but rarely read it online now.	Oct 25, 2012 5:05 PM
141	the offering of the professional accountability that lets me know I am indeed a chaplain and not a volunteer.	Oct 25, 2012 4:59 PM
142	It's constancy of being available and continuing to improve and make available what would make the chaplaincy program more helpful and beneficial to chaplains. It appears a no. of people work very hard to keep the program going and inovative. There is so much available for us to take advantage of and a no. of people make this all available.	Oct 25, 2012 4:58 PM
143	organizational effort, resources, networking, information, professional development	Oct 25, 2012 4:39 PM
144	the national office support and the advocacy for chaplaincy by NACC	Oct 25, 2012 4:39 PM
145	certification, audio events	Oct 25, 2012 4:37 PM
146	Its powerful, national voice for chaplaincy.	Oct 25, 2012 4:33 PM
147	The support I get from David and Cindy; the educational conference calls; the professionalism of chaplaincy.	Oct 25, 2012 4:14 PM
148	Recognition of the professional level of lay involmnet in Chaplain ministry	Oct 25, 2012 4:13 PM
149	I appreciate your continued effort to affirm the ministry of chaplaincy and available to assist them.	Oct 25, 2012 4:05 PM
150	The information made available.	Oct 25, 2012 3:54 PM
151	GREAT MINISTRY RESOURCE	Oct 25, 2012 3:48 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

152	That I am able to be recertified and have gainful employment which I really love.	Oct 25, 2012 3:42 PM
153	Having an organization that understands catholic chaplaincy which can certify our important work	Oct 25, 2012 3:33 PM
154	Connectedness, collegiality, professional standards, continuing education, the annual national conferences	Oct 25, 2012 3:29 PM
155	communication available when I need n answer	Oct 25, 2012 3:25 PM
156	It is a professional organization that certifies clinical chaplains	Oct 25, 2012 3:18 PM
157	Mostly that we have a professional organization that seeks to maintain high standards of practice. I also appreciate Vision, Newsletters, Spiritual Care Champions.	Oct 25, 2012 2:59 PM
158	I truly appreciate the Audio Conferences that are available. They are informative and enriching for my staff of chaplains.	Oct 25, 2012 2:56 PM
159	Keeps me informed of ongoing education, information, and what others are doing..	Oct 25, 2012 2:48 PM
160	NACC is looking to the future of chaplaincy & providing various levels of education to deal with the changing face of chaplaincy.	Oct 25, 2012 2:47 PM
161	The mailings which have job openings. The annual conference.	Oct 25, 2012 2:42 PM
162	Unsure	Oct 25, 2012 2:40 PM
163	Effective and timely coordination of events and activities.	Oct 25, 2012 2:36 PM
164	NACC to group members into localities with "Leaders/Mentors." For example, all NACC members in Hyde Park-Chicago to have a local chapter with a leader for regular meetings.	Oct 25, 2012 2:34 PM
165	The Common Standards, Common Code of Ethics for Professional Chaplains and keeping up with the rapid changes within healthcare and our society as a whole, so that we are prepared spiritually and professionally to meet these new and drastic challenges within our varied settings and disciplines.	Oct 25, 2012 2:30 PM
166	The leadership and all the educational events. Esp. the national conference. State liaisons & current issues of NOW & Vision. I feel like we belong somewhere as an organization and are licensed by the NACC.	Oct 25, 2012 2:27 PM
167	I am sorry but I do not have adequate time to utilize all the resources that are evidently available. I used to find the Vision Publication sent out very helpful because it was handy at all hours of day and night to peruse and meditate on. I do not meditate well on-line.	Oct 25, 2012 2:26 PM
168	professional resources for educational purposes	Oct 25, 2012 2:21 PM
169	networking	Oct 25, 2012 2:20 PM
170	communication and resources, publications	Oct 25, 2012 2:18 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

171	The conferences are well done. I do prefer a hard copy of Visions. I don't read it as much because it is on-line. I have found two wonderful positions from the NACC website, I am very grateful for this.	Oct 25, 2012 2:04 PM
172	Weekly emails, Annual National Conference, NACC website and e-Vision	Oct 25, 2012 2:01 PM
173	Helping us to be recognized as a professional organization. Giving information for celebrations, i.e.spiritual care week.	Oct 25, 2012 1:56 PM
174	Peer interaction & Annual Conference	Oct 25, 2012 1:55 PM
175	I feel it gives me identity. Helps with pastoral authority. Makes me feel I'm not alone in this as a Catholic Lay chaplain in the Bible Belt.	Oct 25, 2012 1:52 PM
176	Educational program and networking	Oct 25, 2012 1:45 PM
177	knowing you are there	Oct 25, 2012 1:40 PM
178	The ability to have information, resources, networking all gathered into one area with a Catholic perspective	Oct 25, 2012 1:39 PM
179	probably its certification process, even though I have not participated.	Oct 25, 2012 1:39 PM
180	Connection to other members, networking about professional development, continuing education opportunities, opportunity for certification within Roman Catholic tradition.	Oct 25, 2012 1:37 PM
181	The professional dimension has grown a lot and positions us to stand shoulder to shoulder with other disciplines. I like Vision but have had a hard time transitioning to eVision.	Oct 25, 2012 1:37 PM
182	Professional development and national intergration of chaplaincy in healthcare	Oct 25, 2012 1:33 PM
183	The National Conference, everything done to advocate for professional chaplaincy, how helpful the Office staff is.	Oct 25, 2012 1:33 PM
184	that standards for chaplaincy for the APC< NACC< and NAJC are the same	Oct 25, 2012 1:32 PM
185	The efforts in Certification of chaplains.	Oct 25, 2012 1:29 PM
186	Policy	Oct 25, 2012 1:23 PM
187	posting of ministry.	Oct 25, 2012 1:18 PM
188	catholic organization; communication and support when I needed it; access to peers about common concerns	Oct 25, 2012 1:14 PM
189	The ease of the support and communication with individuals in the Milwaukee office.	Oct 25, 2012 1:14 PM
190	articles on ministry growth both personally and institutionally, networking, camaraderie, updates on news for Catholic chaplains	Oct 25, 2012 1:13 PM
191	their seasoned communication relation and updates.	Oct 25, 2012 1:08 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

192	News, Vision, national conferences	Oct 25, 2012 1:01 PM
193	Still learning its value to me, my education, and my ministry.	Oct 25, 2012 12:58 PM
194	A respected body of professionals who provide validation of my skills and knowledge (I am a lay woman in a field which has traditionally been the territory of religious and ordained--a certifying body gives me a bit of a leg up on all that). Continued development opportunities and opportunities to network with others committed to this particular ministry.	Oct 25, 2012 12:58 PM
195	The educational events. Promoting the value and worth of Catholic Chaplaincy..	Oct 25, 2012 12:58 PM
196	Networking, continuing ed opportunities.	Oct 25, 2012 12:55 PM
197	Provides some structure to the ministry.	Oct 25, 2012 12:55 PM
198	it offers resources that enable me to grow in my ministry.	Oct 25, 2012 12:51 PM
199	TO MAINTAIN CERTIFICATION I PARTICIPATE IN PROGRAMS&EDUCATIONAL EVENTS WHICH KEEPS ME UPDATED AND INFORMED.I LOOK FOR PROGRAMS THAT WILL APPLY TO MY WORK AS A CHAPLAIN IN THE ACUTE CARE SETTING.IT IS NOT EASY TO GET TIME OFF FOR PROGRAMS DURING THE WEEK SO I TAKE ADVANTAGE OF SEMINARS AND PROGRAMS ON THE WEEK-ENDS.	Oct 25, 2012 12:46 PM
200	(1) certification and certification assistance (2) professional growth resources and opportunities	Oct 25, 2012 12:45 PM
201	Networking and support...	Oct 25, 2012 12:44 PM
202	Available local training.	Oct 25, 2012 12:43 PM
203	Prison conf. calls.	Oct 25, 2012 12:40 PM
204	Catholic chaplain certification organization other than APC.	Oct 25, 2012 12:34 PM
205	networking, resources and leadership	Oct 25, 2012 12:32 PM
206	Information and direction on Chaplain formation	Oct 25, 2012 12:28 PM
207	Advocacy with the bishops.	Oct 25, 2012 12:27 PM
208	Continual efforts to support Chaplains in many and varied ways. Research about Spiritual Care in many venues. Research about and promotion of Chaplaincy.	Oct 25, 2012 12:27 PM
209	Co-ordination and ministry effectiveness	Oct 25, 2012 12:21 PM
210	The consistent reach out to members	Oct 25, 2012 12:20 PM
211	Sense of brother/Sisterhood and educational enhancement	Oct 25, 2012 12:20 PM
212	Catholic ID	Oct 25, 2012 12:19 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

213	Cause for improving our chaplaincy ministry, support of membership	Oct 25, 2012 12:18 PM
214	Their advocacy for our profession.	Oct 25, 2012 12:14 PM
215	NACC's intention to keep us well-informed about Chaplaincy and health Care issues.	Oct 25, 2012 12:06 PM
216	a professional organization that provides encouragement, ideals, and ideas about my ministry.	Oct 25, 2012 12:06 PM
217	Constant communication	Oct 25, 2012 12:02 PM
218	Online news resources.	Oct 25, 2012 12:01 PM
219	The faith based chaplaincy embracing the great diversity of who we are together in Catholic Health Care. The interpersonal and professional relationships. Iniviations to grow, listen, learn together	Oct 25, 2012 12:00 PM
220	the communication tools and resources	Oct 25, 2012 11:59 AM
221	The staff is pleasant and always willing to assist me.	Oct 25, 2012 11:55 AM
222	1) Continuing education opportunities 2) Chaplaincy support & advocacy/promotion	Oct 25, 2012 11:53 AM
223	The opportunity to network with other members for professional development and the educational opportunities.	Oct 25, 2012 11:50 AM
224	up dates and jobs.	Oct 25, 2012 11:49 AM
225	You are on top of relevant things for our ministry! I could never do that alone. If I need you, you are there. Again, I only participate a small amount, but that amount if GREAT!	Oct 25, 2012 11:48 AM
226	Highly professional approach to ministry	Oct 25, 2012 11:48 AM
227	I believe that NACC is tryiong to keep the membership informed.	Oct 25, 2012 11:48 AM
228	news	Oct 25, 2012 11:42 AM
229	Avalibility, always answering the questions that need addressed. Moreover, the staff are kind and respectful.	Oct 25, 2012 10:39 AM
230	makes education and current trends available and accessable.	Oct 25, 2012 9:56 AM
231	The support provided to it's members, keeping us abreast of current thinking in the area of health care ministry and providing conferences to connect with other chaplains.	Oct 25, 2012 9:25 AM
232	I like the thought that there is a national organization to offer support and information.	Oct 25, 2012 7:42 AM
233	NACC Now, Vision, and supportive relationships with other chaplains. Also, David Lichter's reflections.	Oct 25, 2012 2:16 AM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

234	Its net working arrangements and resources.	Oct 24, 2012 9:23 PM
235	articles, resources	Oct 24, 2012 2:32 PM
236	Communication & dialogue with other members	Oct 24, 2012 1:18 PM
237	The encouragement given by leadership and the support staff. They all have been most helpful over the phone and in person. I find them to be loving, caring professionals who take the time to be in relationship, in order to determine best what my needs are.	Oct 24, 2012 11:43 AM
238	professional resources and collaboration. support	Oct 24, 2012 8:23 AM
239	ideas on spiritual care, mission, bioethics; jobs board	Oct 23, 2012 6:58 PM
240	Very authentic and responsive group.	Oct 23, 2012 3:18 PM
241	has facilitated and supported my certification, has provided forums for networking, has aided in my professional development	Oct 23, 2012 3:12 PM
242	Advocacy of the profession.	Oct 23, 2012 2:32 PM
243	Educational and Professional Support	Oct 23, 2012 1:56 PM
244	availability of resources	Oct 23, 2012 1:36 PM
245	Board Certification elevates my position within my institution. NACC provides excellent materials and resources throughout the year.	Oct 23, 2012 1:35 PM
246	Still can belong after retirement	Oct 23, 2012 11:50 AM
247	on going support and collaboration.	Oct 23, 2012 10:59 AM
248	direct help in answering questions	Oct 23, 2012 9:00 AM
249	the continued updating.	Oct 23, 2012 8:49 AM
250	NACC News	Oct 23, 2012 8:48 AM
251	The opportunity to network and learn from other professional chaplains as well as the organizational efforts which take place to promote healthcare chaplaincy as a calling (a vocation) and as a profession.	Oct 23, 2012 8:30 AM
252	I appreciate this organization which provides common standards and means for certification - something that is valuable for training, job-seeking, and credibility in the diocese.	Oct 23, 2012 8:13 AM
253	The professional accreditation	Oct 23, 2012 8:00 AM
254	the professional certification process	Oct 23, 2012 7:46 AM
255	Promoting professional chaplaincy.	Oct 23, 2012 7:37 AM
256	For certification of chaplains.	Oct 23, 2012 6:16 AM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

257	being able to maintain my certification as a chaplain through NACC.	Oct 23, 2012 5:42 AM
258	Certification & renewal of certification as chaplain. Being informed about our ministry on the nat'l level	Oct 23, 2012 5:35 AM
259	...the advocacy ...the accountability in my certification ...the potential professionalism (though we seem to recertify those who seem to clericalize chaplaincy in terms of an all or nothing as oppose to creative partnerships and relationships/memberships)	Oct 23, 2012 12:04 AM
260	The resources and professional materials available, annual conference and ability to network.	Oct 22, 2012 10:02 PM
261	Being a presence before the bishops and legitimizing lay female chaplains, despite Canon Law limits.	Oct 22, 2012 6:39 PM
262	Having a professional organization with resources and ability to keep the profession in the public eye (church and other)	Oct 22, 2012 5:52 PM
263	NACC keeps us very informed about what it is doing on our behalf through the newsletter and visions.	Oct 22, 2012 4:03 PM
264	fellowship support leadership	Oct 22, 2012 3:31 PM
265	The sense of community and affirmation of the spirituality of the chaplain.	Oct 22, 2012 3:20 PM
266	AUDIO CONFERENCES; NOW; VISION	Oct 22, 2012 2:53 PM
267	Outstanding leadership of David Lichter; annual conferences; audio-conferences; and to be able to participate on interview teams for certification.	Oct 22, 2012 2:33 PM
268	National Conventions	Oct 22, 2012 12:58 PM
269	It's leadership in promoting chaplaincy professionally in medical circles and in the church.	Oct 22, 2012 12:45 PM
270	professional organization to keep me educationally updated, provide professional companionship and support	Oct 22, 2012 12:29 PM
271	I appreciate NACC's support of chaplains and their dedication to promote chaplaincy.	Oct 22, 2012 12:28 PM
272	Being certified	Oct 22, 2012 11:32 AM
273	A professional association that understands and encourages chaplains and strives to continue to grow and change as the modern times dictate.	Oct 22, 2012 11:09 AM
274	Availability of information and resources.	Oct 22, 2012 10:28 AM
275	When we used to receive the pstoral care journal i really appreciated that. I read most of the articles. I also appreciated teh hard copy of Visions and read it. Now that everything is electronic , it is just another e-mail among an arms length of e-mails. I often do not read it. I appreciate the staff when i call. They are excellent.	Oct 22, 2012 10:17 AM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

276	The collegial support that the Association facilitates to an area of ministry that our church doesn't seem to have much interest in normally and when retrenching, ignores altogether.	Oct 22, 2012 10:17 AM
277	Update on Standards of Practice; Able to speak to someone about re-certification and giving/reminding a person like me when I need to be re-certified.	Oct 22, 2012 10:02 AM
278	professional support. professional relationship with staff	Oct 22, 2012 9:43 AM
279	availability of certification; opportunities for continuing education; networking options.	Oct 22, 2012 9:28 AM
280	Connection with other Catholic chaplains and an organization that values us.	Oct 22, 2012 9:26 AM
281	Support, resources	Oct 22, 2012 9:24 AM
282	Networking with other chaplains, the support from the national office staff, the commitment from NACC to professional chaplaincy	Oct 22, 2012 9:21 AM
283	Upholds the Catholic Perspective in times of change in health care and the view of what respect of all life means within the new health care laws	Oct 22, 2012 9:18 AM
284	Claiming of CAtholic identity in professional life	Oct 22, 2012 8:51 AM
285	communications i can access on computer and local events	Oct 22, 2012 8:43 AM
286	the video and the certification information.	Oct 22, 2012 7:38 AM
287	Professional, national organization that provides on-going support and educational opportunities. Keeps us on the cutting edge	Oct 22, 2012 7:36 AM
288	Resources, audio conferences, leadership	Oct 22, 2012 7:25 AM
289	The Newsletter and the Website!	Oct 22, 2012 7:24 AM
290	Pastoral support/educational resources	Oct 22, 2012 7:10 AM
291	Leadership.	Oct 22, 2012 7:08 AM
292	professional board certification educational resources	Oct 22, 2012 7:04 AM
293	Belonging to my own professional organization	Oct 22, 2012 6:36 AM
294	UNKNOWN ??????	Oct 22, 2012 6:01 AM
295	efforts to touch on and go into depth on the many areas where chaplaincy is present	Oct 22, 2012 5:47 AM
296	NACC is always available to find out directives in answering those who have desires to answer the call. NACC staff is very helpful, kindness with compassion whenever I have communicated about my future in Chaplaincy.	Oct 22, 2012 1:42 AM
297	Continuing Education Comaraderie	Oct 21, 2012 9:06 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

298	The support of peer Chaplains. That was what we had when we had our Regional Conferences. The National conferences are too big.	Oct 21, 2012 8:45 PM
299	CHE contributions	Oct 21, 2012 8:06 PM
300	support of other chaplains	Oct 21, 2012 7:17 PM
301	I appreciate that there are talented,dedicated professional trained Chaplains, support staff at the National and local level who are will to serve to further the professional and spiritual face of the Spiritual Care Ministry.	Oct 21, 2012 7:09 PM
302	Catholic presence	Oct 21, 2012 7:05 PM
303	The professionalism it brings to ones title and position.	Oct 21, 2012 7:05 PM
304	Professional support and peer connections.	Oct 21, 2012 3:57 PM
305	Catholic-based professional group of chaplains	Oct 21, 2012 3:47 PM
306	The staff accesibility and professionalism.	Oct 21, 2012 1:34 PM
307	Support of Chaplaincy Profession, Certification process, Vision Newsletter,National Conference	Oct 21, 2012 1:25 PM
308	The audio conferences that we can listen to later. We cannot do them on work time.	Oct 21, 2012 12:22 PM
309	Local gatherines and net working	Oct 21, 2012 11:57 AM
310	The training (chaplian in pastoral outreach mostly), the many and diverse supervisors (7 including Native Amrican and a female Rabbi), training in secular and catholic insitutions and inter-faith students I trained with as well - truly an ecumenical experience I treasure.	Oct 21, 2012 8:55 AM
311	Fellowship/awareness of other Catholic Chaplains.	Oct 21, 2012 8:24 AM
312	The continuing research in Chaplaincy	Oct 21, 2012 5:09 AM
313	collaboration	Oct 21, 2012 3:14 AM
314	The professional identity and support is very important for someone working in secular environment.	Oct 21, 2012 12:11 AM
315	I have no contact with anyone in NACC & thus, NACC has no value to me. I would like such support both to write papers & avail of resources.	Oct 20, 2012 10:49 PM
316	The gracious, generous support and encougement as well as the oppportunity for certification since we cannot be licensed.	Oct 20, 2012 10:40 PM
317	providing opportunities for educational updating	Oct 20, 2012 10:20 PM
318	Is the effort and hard work that is being done and continues to be done for the sake of the membership.	Oct 20, 2012 9:19 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

319	Insights into how institutions that value and support chaplaincy incorporate it into the life of their organizations.	Oct 20, 2012 9:04 PM
320	National conference is outstanding!!	Oct 20, 2012 6:56 PM
321	professional	Oct 20, 2012 6:05 PM
322	Catholic Organization	Oct 20, 2012 6:00 PM
323	Learning opportunity and maintaining contact with peers	Oct 20, 2012 5:12 PM
324	Sharing of information from colleagues on ways to improve my ministry, updates on latest research and ideas.	Oct 20, 2012 4:36 PM
325	quality of programs	Oct 20, 2012 2:41 PM
326	Monthly magazine	Oct 20, 2012 1:56 PM
327	It is a national organization which tries to unite chaplains all over the country.	Oct 20, 2012 1:38 PM
328	"The website information" and professionalism, research, and breath of information	Oct 20, 2012 1:30 PM
329	Attempts to present Chaplaincy as a professional organization with standards and expectations.	Oct 20, 2012 1:26 PM
330	updating of information through publications and national conference.	Oct 20, 2012 12:53 PM
331	That they are always trying to respond to pertinent and current issues and needs of the members	Oct 20, 2012 12:51 PM
332	The organization for professional chaplaincy. I appreciate that there is a Catholic organization to make it possible for me to become a professional in my career. I do not think it would have been possible for me to be a Chaplain in the workplace without the certification. It gives me a place at the "table" of other professionals. It promotes security in my identity as a Catholic Chaplain. Also most importantly, NACC gives me a community of professionals of which to exist.	Oct 20, 2012 12:33 PM
333	NACC is very informative and progressive.	Oct 20, 2012 12:09 PM
334	the coordination of the regional conference I attend every year	Oct 20, 2012 11:32 AM
335	Professional organization that lends credence to profession of chaplain	Oct 20, 2012 10:38 AM
336	the NACC yearly conference(s) and job list	Oct 20, 2012 10:31 AM
337	Colleague collaboration, on-going educational opportunities, support of my chaplaincy efforts	Oct 20, 2012 10:20 AM
338	peer relationships educational material national conferences	Oct 20, 2012 10:20 AM
339	the advocacy of professional chaplaincy	Oct 20, 2012 10:18 AM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

340	The newsletter makes me feel more connected with the organization. It's information on current needs and issues faced by other chaplains gives breath and depth to my understanding. When I have called the office I have spoken to a REAL person.	Oct 20, 2012 9:17 AM
341	The challenges it offers not only to members but to the Church at large and to institutions to value the chaplaincy.	Oct 20, 2012 8:36 AM
342	Resources available, national conference, regional activities, advocacy done on our behalf, Vision, NACC News	Oct 20, 2012 8:13 AM
343	NACC connects me with other chaplains, keeps me updated, offers on-going education opportunities. When we gather as a group of Chaplains to listen to a conference we have the opportunity to continue the conversation.	Oct 20, 2012 7:48 AM
344	development of professional skills	Oct 20, 2012 7:46 AM
345	resources; educational audioconferences and that they are available for later listening also.	Oct 20, 2012 5:46 AM
346	networking, information, spiritual formation, standards required, growth of the profession and professional growth	Oct 20, 2012 4:57 AM
347	the NACC e newsletter, NOW and David's thoughts in the first section	Oct 20, 2012 12:13 AM
348	I am too new to all of this to respond to this question.	Oct 19, 2012 11:25 PM
349	It's fidelity to it's members and broadening it's horizons to specialty groups! This is a tough time for Spiritual Care with budgets being cut and chaplains being laid off!	Oct 19, 2012 9:56 PM
350	The hard work in promoting Chaplains professionalism.	Oct 19, 2012 9:00 PM
351	It has given me the "formal" recognition I have needed to work as a chaplain in health ministry	Oct 19, 2012 8:55 PM
352	Continuing education opportunities, Vision	Oct 19, 2012 6:50 PM
353	fellowship with other chaplains	Oct 19, 2012 5:31 PM
354	Collegial support	Oct 19, 2012 5:10 PM
355	the opportunity as a Catholic to be certified as a professional chaplain by a recognized and highly thought of Catholic organization	Oct 19, 2012 4:32 PM
356	Chaplaincy positions available	Oct 19, 2012 4:24 PM
357	Team work and openness to ideas.	Oct 19, 2012 4:16 PM
358	NACC is very supportive of all who minister as chaplains.	Oct 19, 2012 3:38 PM
359	Its integrity	Oct 19, 2012 3:34 PM
360	The connection to other professional chaplains.	Oct 19, 2012 3:20 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

361	the ability to connect with other chaplains	Oct 19, 2012 3:07 PM
362	The fact that there exists a non-Board Certified designation for ministry volunteers. This permits those of us who are not Board-Certified to join and be part of a national organization.	Oct 19, 2012 3:07 PM
363	education and support	Oct 19, 2012 3:06 PM
364	Workshops, support etc	Oct 19, 2012 2:33 PM
365	the e-mails	Oct 19, 2012 2:31 PM
366	Your jobs website listing hospitals and hospice, and nursing homes looking for chaplains to hire	Oct 19, 2012 2:13 PM
367	educational offerings; keeping current with church developments and changes in chaplaincy ministry	Oct 19, 2012 1:44 PM
368	The opportunity to network with colleagues at the annual conference and Vision.	Oct 19, 2012 1:33 PM
369	NACC offers Board Chaplain Certification and Continuing Education which keeps current with our changing Healthcare Industry.	Oct 19, 2012 1:31 PM
370	Keeping us up todate	Oct 19, 2012 1:26 PM
371	the attempt to communicate with the membership	Oct 19, 2012 1:26 PM
372	I love the Nacc Conference , and hope to be In Pittsburg	Oct 19, 2012 1:22 PM
373	providing articles that help us deepen our lives as pastoral care ministers and how others give examples.	Oct 19, 2012 1:21 PM
374	Awareness of current trends in pastoral ministry	Oct 19, 2012 12:54 PM
375	Newsletters, conferences of all types--especially the annual conference--availability of staff for consultation, staff genuine interested and investment in the organization	Oct 19, 2012 12:41 PM
376	The ease of the ability to contact NACC staff members; continuous and ongoing opportunities to participate in events, committees, programs and workshops.	Oct 19, 2012 12:20 PM
377	conferences	Oct 19, 2012 12:07 PM
378	I appreciate being kept up to date	Oct 19, 2012 12:05 PM
379	The training I received, the opportunity to work on a more professional level. As a woman, I command more respect among my colleagues.	Oct 19, 2012 12:02 PM
380	I appreciate being informed and staying informed of what is happening, educational and networking opportunities	Oct 19, 2012 11:54 AM
381	Opportunities to speak with certified chaplins in my area.	Oct 19, 2012 11:44 AM
382	The development and integration of NACC with other Associations	Oct 19, 2012 11:31 AM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

383	support and network	Oct 19, 2012 11:29 AM
384	The comradery	Oct 19, 2012 11:26 AM
385	being able to trust that we are a highly professional Association who are out there for each other & that we are Catholic.	Oct 19, 2012 11:11 AM
386	The on-going training and solidarity it fosters among care givers and its efforts to sustain the ministry.	Oct 19, 2012 11:11 AM
387	Updating, but would like video conferences w interaction possibility.	Oct 19, 2012 11:05 AM
388	I was certified in 1987 and am proud of the leadership and advancement as a professional organization and it's collaborative work and relationship with other chapliancy organizations, healthcare initiatives, as well as with the United States Conference of Bishops	Oct 19, 2012 11:00 AM
389	the willingness of David and everyone in the NACC office to get involved and help those who are members of this organization when help is requested.	Oct 19, 2012 10:55 AM
390	Interactive accessibility for information and for inspiration (NACC Now).	Oct 19, 2012 10:48 AM
391	Monthy E-mail publication. I appreciate the information.	Oct 19, 2012 10:46 AM
392	The curtesy, kindness and verbal support from all the staff when ever I phone asking for help. Second, how David is always ready to respond to questions when asked and his way of encouraging me and other chaplains in the NW when ever needed. I am proud to say that I am a member of the NACC to my other professionals from APC and/or AAPC.	Oct 19, 2012 10:45 AM
393	Activities and conferences when I was working.	Oct 19, 2012 10:43 AM
394	THERE COLLABORATIVE SPIRIT WITHIN NACC AS WELL AS WITHIN THE OTHER CHAPLAIN ASSOCIATIOND	Oct 19, 2012 10:32 AM
395	The worship, workshops, and camaraderie at the national conferences.	Oct 19, 2012 10:30 AM
396	leadership and support	Oct 19, 2012 10:26 AM
397	The educational offerings, the National Conference, the communication from David and others on the team.	Oct 19, 2012 10:01 AM
398	The resources.	Oct 19, 2012 9:58 AM
399	keeping membership up to date on relevant issues	Oct 19, 2012 9:55 AM
400	Networking, relationship building	Oct 19, 2012 9:54 AM
401	networking opportunities	Oct 19, 2012 9:47 AM
402	Information provided.	Oct 19, 2012 9:47 AM
403	I have always had a high regard for NACC. I appreciate the need for more professionalism.	Oct 19, 2012 9:44 AM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

404	That you are a voice for the profession. I got tired of having to justify by existence, but that is my problem and self-esteem talking.	Oct 19, 2012 9:34 AM
405	It is an organization that keeps before us the moral obligation to give spiritual care to all we serve. It is a source of formation for all of us and it is a partner in Mission and Catholic Identity Work. It could be, in my estimation, a stronger source, but other strategies would need put into play. I am and will always be proud to be a Board Certified Member. BCC is after my name as an identifier. More Board Certified Chaplains need to have those initials on their name tags and door labels.	Oct 19, 2012 9:33 AM
406	It is a pastoral, ecumenical, vision oriented organization.	Oct 19, 2012 9:32 AM
407	Information, ideas, collaboration, support, forward thinking.	Oct 19, 2012 9:30 AM
408	What I learned about prayer and healing	Oct 19, 2012 9:27 AM
409	Certification status.	Oct 19, 2012 9:24 AM
410	National Conferences	Oct 19, 2012 9:24 AM
411	All the available resources for professional and spiritual growth and education.	Oct 19, 2012 9:14 AM
412	Networking	Oct 19, 2012 9:12 AM
413	That it is there as a resource if needed.	Oct 19, 2012 9:03 AM
414	Networking at the convention. However, convention is getting more difficult to attend due to no funding from my institution and the expense of the hotel/convention itself.	Oct 19, 2012 9:02 AM
415	Connection and support for Professional and pastoral identity	Oct 19, 2012 9:01 AM
416	its highly organized professional services	Oct 19, 2012 8:56 AM
417	the great work being done to promote the profession of chaplaincy.	Oct 19, 2012 8:47 AM
418	the standards established for professional conduct and the way in which board certification protocol is communicated. I also appreciate the camaraderie, fellowship, and professional value of the annual conferences.	Oct 19, 2012 8:45 AM
419	Collaboration and networking-support	Oct 19, 2012 8:38 AM
420	being a member	Oct 19, 2012 8:35 AM
421	Connections and education	Oct 19, 2012 8:32 AM
422	that it is trying to foster professional chaplaincy.	Oct 19, 2012 8:28 AM
423	Its leadership and the opportunities it provides its members.	Oct 19, 2012 8:22 AM
424	All assistance around certification/recertification Online/print resource Job board	Oct 19, 2012 8:12 AM
425	The professional support available from the national office staff. Response is	Oct 19, 2012 8:03 AM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

	always prompt and very personable
426	1. The opportunities for continuing education through the NACC audio conferences and Spiritual Care Champions programs. 2. The opportunity to attend local events such as the one held yesterday, Oct. 18th, at Seton Cove Spirituality Center in Indianapolis. I have been unable to attend the annual conference in recent years and I appreciate that these local events are made available to us. 3. I appreciate the advocacy of the NACC on behalf of its members before the Bishops' Committees, etc. 4. I appreciate the leadership of David Lichter and the passion he brings to his ministry and all the efforts he is making on behalf of the NACC. I appreciate who are working so hard for us at the Milwaukee office. Thank you!	Oct 19, 2012 8:02 AM
427	Their support helped bring my salary up to standard, and also helped me recertify when I was challenged that it was inappropriate for a Catholic woman to call herself a chaplain.	Oct 19, 2012 7:58 AM
428	NACC gives me the credentials I need as a board certified chaplain	Oct 19, 2012 7:53 AM
429	Professional relationships	Oct 19, 2012 7:52 AM
430	vision news letter on computer	Oct 19, 2012 7:49 AM
431	I most enjoyed the conferences that were combined in whole or in part with APC, ACPE.	Oct 19, 2012 7:43 AM
432	Support for BCC; website for spiritual assessment; encouragement from Visions.	Oct 19, 2012 7:35 AM
433	Vehicle for certification and arranging endorsement	Oct 19, 2012 7:14 AM
434	Continuing education, conferences, knowing there is a body of support within chaplaincy that "gets" Catholic identity.	Oct 19, 2012 7:12 AM
435	It as a certifying body	Oct 19, 2012 7:11 AM
436	Your effort at keeping members informed and current .	Oct 19, 2012 7:11 AM
437	Jobe search and availability in responding to phone calls. Excellent.	Oct 19, 2012 7:10 AM
438	sharing of ideas for the ministry and the programs offered on line and in regions in order to meet the recertification annual requirements	Oct 19, 2012 7:06 AM
439	As a Catholic woman I am committed to ministering to Catholics who are in such need of spiritual companioning and value the organization especially as a Voice Crying in the Wilderness in our Church today.	Oct 19, 2012 7:05 AM
440	Presence in office always helpful	Oct 19, 2012 6:58 AM
441	It tries to keep open communications with its members	Oct 19, 2012 6:54 AM
442	Collegiality, professional resource, conference	Oct 19, 2012 6:53 AM
443	Networking, advocacy, focus on key issues, championing Lay Ministry, dealing with "p[roblem Bishops"	Oct 19, 2012 6:52 AM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

444	its clear and strong mission and support	Oct 19, 2012 6:50 AM
445	Dont have a most appreciate. I need to be certified to maintain job.	Oct 19, 2012 6:46 AM
446	Promotion of training for professional chaplains and support for those of us who are certifi	Oct 19, 2012 6:42 AM
447	Helpful, professional, and resourceful	Oct 19, 2012 6:42 AM
448	The plethora of information! I like receiving the info via email, it's very convenient and easy to navigate.	Oct 19, 2012 6:37 AM
449	connection to great people	Oct 19, 2012 6:33 AM
450	Standard bearer for Best Practices in the Ministry	Oct 19, 2012 6:30 AM
451	effort to meet the changing needs of membership	Oct 19, 2012 6:27 AM
452	It is a professional organization adocating for pastoral care in institutions and field education in seminaries.	Oct 19, 2012 6:16 AM
453	I value our support, educational opportunies and advocaating.	Oct 19, 2012 6:08 AM
454	Association with other members	Oct 19, 2012 6:06 AM
455	The on-going communication via e-mail etc about educational opportunities and article of interest.I believe on-going re-certification is of value and keeps one current on many issues.	Oct 19, 2012 6:00 AM
456	Professional support and access to resources; continued challenge and ongoing education	Oct 19, 2012 5:57 AM
457	It has modeled a way to bring social justice and ethics to life through my Catholic faith and supported me as I operate in a region unaware that Catholic women can serve as Chaplains.	Oct 19, 2012 5:38 AM
458	Collaboratio and support. Also, the research is bvery helpful.	Oct 19, 2012 5:12 AM
459	The professional stance that is taken always	Oct 19, 2012 5:06 AM
460	Do need to know what is going on in the field.	Oct 19, 2012 4:06 AM
461	collaboration of ministries	Oct 19, 2012 2:20 AM
462	being a family	Oct 19, 2012 12:30 AM
463	The advacnes that have been made since David took on leadership . It is like we became "Alive" agin, I value al of the programs and participae in as many as timeallows. itry to attenjd the Annual conference at least every other year. I am very pleased with what is happening in NACC right no. May it continue. I also apreciate how you ask for our input and feedback. Thank you .	Oct 19, 2012 12:08 AM
464	collaboration of all the members and their stories	Oct 18, 2012 11:23 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

465	Information	Oct 18, 2012 10:30 PM
466	Staff, continuing education, certification,	Oct 18, 2012 10:16 PM
467	The tireless leaders who promote the causes for chaplains	Oct 18, 2012 10:08 PM
468	On line resources easy access 24/7	Oct 18, 2012 9:53 PM
469	Keeping in touch with current trends and offerings.	Oct 18, 2012 9:52 PM
470	Not sure due goes up and nothing is done for it's membership especially those semi retired and trying to make ends meet and paying out-ladish dues	Oct 18, 2012 9:38 PM
471	That it is an active resource and advocate for those who are employed chaplains.	Oct 18, 2012 9:32 PM
472	Monthly newsletter	Oct 18, 2012 9:31 PM
473	Network	Oct 18, 2012 9:29 PM
474	networking and knowing where to go if I need help with ethical stance issues.	Oct 18, 2012 8:51 PM
475	Info on current chaplaincy issues	Oct 18, 2012 8:47 PM
476	Services and certification standards	Oct 18, 2012 8:42 PM
477	professionalism, resources,	Oct 18, 2012 8:36 PM
478	The articles in the Vision magazine. However, since I now have to read it online, I don't as much as I find it difficult to read so much on the screen. When it was in paper form, I read it from cover to cover.	Oct 18, 2012 8:29 PM
479	Consistent communication and support. Opportunities for development and research.	Oct 18, 2012 8:26 PM
480	Support for my ministry as a Catholic woman	Oct 18, 2012 8:26 PM
481	Professional accreditation and membership.	Oct 18, 2012 8:23 PM
482	Networking	Oct 18, 2012 8:18 PM
483	the connection with a large organization that is personable and helpful.	Oct 18, 2012 8:16 PM
484	NACC makes a difference in the lives of chaplains. I know the national office is there to support, guide and assist and promote professional and competent chaplains. I appreciate the spirit of servant leadership I experience from the members of the national office and thank you for your dedication and service to us in the field.	Oct 18, 2012 8:08 PM
485	Community and professional development	Oct 18, 2012 7:59 PM
486	The director's reflection and updates sent electronically. I don't even recall how often, but I do read it when it appears.	Oct 18, 2012 7:57 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

487	Collegiality in ministry, professionalism, and advocacy.	Oct 18, 2012 7:56 PM
488	educational opportunities, advocacy in behalf of chaplaincy; timely information	Oct 18, 2012 7:50 PM
489	the emphasis on professionalism and also ethical behavior	Oct 18, 2012 7:41 PM
490	Not much	Oct 18, 2012 7:34 PM
491	The conference and networking	Oct 18, 2012 7:33 PM
492	Getting certified and feeling very satisfied. Support if I need it.	Oct 18, 2012 7:22 PM
493	monthly vision -- hard copy	Oct 18, 2012 7:19 PM
494	The resources they offer as well as the opportunity to network with other chaplains.	Oct 18, 2012 7:12 PM
495	efforts to place chaplaincy on a par with other health professionals - interdisciplinary approach to healing and health - also articles, etc that deepen spirituality and commitment - ethical issues in health care	Oct 18, 2012 7:08 PM
496	organizing educational events	Oct 18, 2012 7:05 PM
497	The ability to network and advance Professional Chaplaincy across the nation. Advocacy with bishops and ensure that our voice is present in the Church.	Oct 18, 2012 7:05 PM
498	Getting certified for my employment.	Oct 18, 2012 7:02 PM
499	The variety of resources and networking which the organization makes available to its members.	Oct 18, 2012 7:01 PM
500	Visions, NACC News, Certification, educational opportunities (including some I have not been able to attend)	Oct 18, 2012 7:00 PM
501	The local gatherings and the newsletters	Oct 18, 2012 6:57 PM
502	Keeping contact with its members!	Oct 18, 2012 6:57 PM
503	The newsletter	Oct 18, 2012 6:55 PM
504	Being part of a well educated group of Catholic ministry professionals	Oct 18, 2012 6:48 PM
505	I read NACC NOW when it comes on email. I used to enjoy reading VISION when it came out in print, but I haven't read it online.	Oct 18, 2012 6:47 PM
506	The accreditation process which puts me on equal footing with other professional chaplains.	Oct 18, 2012 6:38 PM
507	HOw they help keep chaplain profession more professional.	Oct 18, 2012 6:30 PM
508	Your support and encouragement.	Oct 18, 2012 6:25 PM
509	The work to enhance the quality of pastoral care and services in health care today.	Oct 18, 2012 6:25 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

510	credentials	Oct 18, 2012 6:23 PM
511	many communication efforts and the welcoming staff support	Oct 18, 2012 6:22 PM
512	Collaboration and integration of gifts into the ministry	Oct 18, 2012 6:15 PM
513	networking. Catholic. openness. helpfulness/collaborative. caring/supportive. credentialing.	Oct 18, 2012 6:13 PM
514	collegiality and care for each other	Oct 18, 2012 6:11 PM
515	Professionals working together to advance the work.	Oct 18, 2012 6:06 PM
516	Educational opportunities	Oct 18, 2012 5:55 PM
517	the community aspect	Oct 18, 2012 5:55 PM
518	meeting others and exchanging ideas. NACC provides a place to connect with others in my field	Oct 18, 2012 5:55 PM
519	Information and collaboration	Oct 18, 2012 5:52 PM
520	Professionalism	Oct 18, 2012 5:49 PM
521	I enjoy the newsletter. But, I really miss the paper copy. It used to be good bedtime reading.	Oct 18, 2012 5:47 PM
522	Love og God through humanbeings	Oct 18, 2012 5:45 PM
523	Professional development, opportunities to keep actively engaging the clinical ministry movement	Oct 18, 2012 5:45 PM
524	Vision, Deacon quarterly teleconference	Oct 18, 2012 5:42 PM
525	Professional development, collaboration	Oct 18, 2012 5:39 PM
526	Membership offers opportunities and support as I improve my chaplaincy profession and ministry.	Oct 18, 2012 5:33 PM
527	When they were fighting for us to get better salaries and greater respect from clergy... not so much of that lately	Oct 18, 2012 5:33 PM
528	having community of Catholic ministers--local colleagues, national colleagues. Recognition of our chaplaincy ministry within the Church and also institutions	Oct 18, 2012 5:29 PM
529	The director! Also Vision but find not reading on line. Could spend life in front of the screen if allowed this to happen.	Oct 18, 2012 5:20 PM
530	The sharing of experience in the News letter articles by the my fellow chaplains is most interested and appreciated by me.	Oct 18, 2012 5:19 PM
531	The conference calls which are very informative; I appreciate hearing the feedback and participation of others who are already chaplains.	Oct 18, 2012 5:17 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

532	Information resource	Oct 18, 2012 5:14 PM
533	communications	Oct 18, 2012 5:09 PM
534	the palliative care audio conferences	Oct 18, 2012 5:08 PM
535	Ongoing support and timely communication.	Oct 18, 2012 5:04 PM
536	good conferences - national and local	Oct 18, 2012 5:02 PM
537	the continued effort to lead us in the healing ministry of Jesus.	Oct 18, 2012 5:02 PM
538	sometimew I wonder why I continue providing you with membership dues	Oct 18, 2012 4:59 PM
539	That we have a professional organisation to provide professional insights/challenges, backup and support.	Oct 18, 2012 4:56 PM
540	bridging of Communication	Oct 18, 2012 4:55 PM
541	professionalism	Oct 18, 2012 4:52 PM
542	Professionally-written materials.	Oct 18, 2012 4:51 PM
543	newsletters, connecting with other chaplains when I was actively involved from other places; gatherings on a more local level	Oct 18, 2012 4:51 PM
544	Very little now. It is so professional I am no longer excited about being a member.	Oct 18, 2012 4:51 PM
545	It's Vat. II vision of Church and ministry. Peer support.	Oct 18, 2012 4:47 PM
546	I greatly appreciate the energy coming from NACC today. I appreciate the collaboration with other like organizations. I greatly appreciate the support of NACC. I appreciate the education available. I believe, in current "political speak" that the organization is going in the right direction.	Oct 18, 2012 4:44 PM
547	I appreciate the vision and plans to promote chaplaincy and educational opportunities.	Oct 18, 2012 4:44 PM
548	At this busy time your continued reaching out and support of members.	Oct 18, 2012 4:44 PM
549	certification process	Oct 18, 2012 4:43 PM
550	opportunities to learn from other Chaplains across the country through the central office, website and printed/printable materials.	Oct 18, 2012 4:40 PM
551	Certification process	Oct 18, 2012 4:40 PM
552	Dedication of staff. Commitment to improving the qualilty and relevance of pastoral care.	Oct 18, 2012 4:35 PM
553	ongoing education on the local level	Oct 18, 2012 4:33 PM
554	The above mentioned activities and your great support	Oct 18, 2012 4:33 PM

Page 10, Q1. What I most appreciate from NACC is...

555	Collaboration around certification interviews, the many educational opportunities, Executive Director's reflections, focus on professionalism of chaplains and broader collaborations with other professional organizations	Oct 18, 2012 4:33 PM
556	Advocacy	Oct 18, 2012 4:31 PM
557	Resources	Oct 18, 2012 4:25 PM
558	The General Support it offers through information and advocacy.	Oct 18, 2012 4:24 PM
559	support, educational opportunities, flexibility, sharing	Oct 18, 2012 4:23 PM
560	Support and education	Oct 18, 2012 4:22 PM
561	Meeting others by phone, and at conferences, plus the teleconferences.	Oct 18, 2012 4:19 PM
562	emails	Oct 18, 2012 4:17 PM
563	The continued efforts to keep us informed and professional.	Oct 18, 2012 4:14 PM
564	resources	Oct 18, 2012 4:10 PM