The Road to Emmaus

Walking along with and Ministering to Patients with Depression and Anxiety

Fr. Joseph Perumpuzha Chacko, M.A, LPC, BCC
DEPRESSION

An illness and/or A Dark Night of the Soul?
The woods are lovely, dark and deep.
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

~Robert Frost 1923
45-year-old white Catholic woman, mother of two, admitted in the hospital with poor sleep, lack of concentration, and anxiety. She is going through a painful divorce which is against her faith. She feels terribly guilty about divorce, has poor self-esteem, and feels she does not want to live any more. She quits eating and taking care of herself.
Psalm 38 (GNT)

1 O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath. (guilt, fear)

2 For your arrows have pierced me, and your hand has come down upon me. (feeling of being punished, shame)

3 Because of your wrath there is no health in my body (low energy); my bones have no soundness because of my sin. (feeling empty)

4 My guilt has overwhelmed me like a burden too heavy to bear. (shame)

5 My wounds fester and are loathsome because of my sinful folly.

6 I am bowed down and brought very low; all day long I go about mourning. (low self esteem)

7 My back is filled with searing pain; there is no health in my body. (physical pain)

8 I am feeble and utterly crushed; I groan in anguish of heart. (vulnerability)
9 All my longings lie open before you, O Lord; my sighing is not hidden from you.

10 My heart pounds, my strength fails me; even the light has gone from my eyes. (anxiety)

11 My friends and companions avoid me because of my wounds; my neighbors stay far away. (isolation)

12 Those who seek my life set their traps, those who would harm me talk of my ruin; all day long they plot deception. (suspicion)

13 I am like a deaf man, who cannot hear, like a mute, who cannot open his mouth; (confusion)

14 I have become like a man who does not hear, whose mouth can offer no reply. (slow speech)

15 I wait for you, O LORD; you will answer, O Lord my God.

16 For I said, "Do not let them gloat or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips."

17 For I am about to fall, and my pain is ever with me. (hopelessness)
18 I confess my iniquity; I am troubled by my sin. (guilt)

19 Many are those who are my vigorous enemies; those who hate me without reason are numerous. (persecutory)

20 Those who repay my good with evil slander me when I pursue what is good.

21 O LORD, do not forsake me; be not far from me, O my God. (sense of abandonment)

22 Come quickly to help me, O Lord my Savior
“I want to be normal again.”

I have seen only two things ‘normal’ –

enuous one is on the dishwasher and the other is on the washing machine.

Spirituality

“Spirituality is that which brings peace, happiness, and love.” Sri Sri Ravisankar BBC interview August 14/2010

One’s way to maintain serenity, peace, joy, happiness, love, kindness and such other positive emotions in one’s life journey is by establishing healthy relationships with one’s own self, others and the Other (God).

• Connectedness

• Warm non-anxious presence
What disturbs our spirituality?

• Negative emotions: anger, anxiety, guilt, shame, jealous, hate, low self-esteem, feeling of emptiness.

• Internalized anger!

• Rationalize/analyze them and replace them with healthy thoughts

• Using Faith as an alternative thought

• Psalmist uses alternative thoughts

- Spiritual reasons won’t explain all the symptoms
Chaplain’s words do matter. (We are reminders of God’s presence.)

We are not therapists. We are sojourners. (Emmaus Journey)

Anxiety is contagious. Non-anxious/non-judgmental presence of the chaplain is very important.

Remain calm.
