

Bold and Gentle Healer

“*Your path led through the sea,
your way through the mighty waters,
though your footprints were not seen.*”

(Psalm 77:19)

Make me bold in spirit, Lord.
Bold as Moses to approach
And take commission.
Let me walk from here
As a healer called
To set brothers and sisters free.

Make me gentle in spirit, Lord,
As soft as Your breath,
Powerful as your angels,
Able to touch where no eye sees
To heal where no hand touches.

For I am a healer
Burning gentle and hope-bold,
Called and sent.
Bless me, Lord.

@2015 Chaplain David Rapp, B.C.C.
CHI Franciscan Health
Tacoma, WA