Purpose
To consult with the Vision editor on the content and direction of the online publication.

Major Responsibilities
1. Provides a sounding board for the content and direction of Vision online publication. Ensures that Vision’s overall content fulfills the mission and supports the NACC’s strategic plan and meets member needs.
2. Suggests topics for articles or for theme issues, and/or chaplains who might be suitable to write articles.
3. Writes for the online publication, or to give an opinion on articles submitted for inclusion.
4. Reads and comments on articles, as requested, before publication.
5. Advocates for the members to ensure that Vision meets their needs.

Criteria for Members
- NACC Membership
- Board Certified Chaplain or Supervisor (one year)
- Recognized professional competence and leadership.
- Two years’ experience demonstrated knowledge, skills, abilities in writing and/or publishing and one or more related fields such as healthcare, mission, education and research.

Time Commitment
- The Editorial Advisory Panel convenes every other month on a 60-minute conference call. This does not require travel.
- Conference calls and/or e-mail communications are sometimes needed to complete work.