Through the Eyes of the Beholder

Mary T. O'Connor
DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to all SEEKERS who are seeking God in the ordinary moments of every day.

INTRODUCTION

The photos in this book are meant to inspire your thinking.

A tree, a rock, a cloud, a bird, rushing water, in all God's presence is felt.

Through awareness, many moments of our day can be sources of meditation. We become aware of God's presence by looking and loving -- one thing at a time.

As the fragrance dwells within the flower,
so the essence of the ONE whom we seek,
lies deeply within us.

What do your eyes behold?
On Golden Pond....
BEHOLD!
FEAR NOT !
The Harvest is Great –
The Laborers are Few.
From Generation to Generation
One Sows – Another Reaps Reflect the Creator
What do your eyes behold?
